Waste Fact

Brace yourself for this mind-blowing fact: the average person dishes out a hefty four pounds of waste every single day! And that's just the warm-up act. By the end of the year, each of us ends up with a jaw-dropping 1.5 tons of trash. Talk about a mountain of garbage!

WELCOME TO THE TEAM

Introducing: David Carlson

We are pleased that David joined the REACT team as the the LeRoy Landfill Scale House Operator in March 2024.

David immerses himself in the realm of computer graphics for leisure while on a quest to discover the ultimate steak. His preferred destinations for indulging in adventure are Memphis and Nashville! David's favorite piece of advice is his dad's golden nugget of wisdom "Always tell the truth and you don't have to try and remember it" After retiring, David sought new activities to occupy his time and stumbled upon the opportunity at REACT. David looks forward to interacting with our amazing members daily.

A surprising fact about David is his previous career as a radio broadcaster for many years. His future ambition is never to retire again! Welcome to the team, David.
